18 CAPTAINS MADE ON MERIT.

OLD WAY OF POLICE PROMOTION CAN'T RETURN, SAYS M'ADOO.

Men Picked by Advisory Committee Told That Neither Dollars Nor Friends Counted in Their Selection, but Only the Records-No Surprises in List.

Police Commissioner McAdoo appointed yesterday afternoon eighteen new police captains. This is the largest number of captains ever made at one time in the history of the department. All save three of those appointed have been acting captains, and their promotion yesterday caused no surprise. In the recent examinations for capains there were twenty-four applicants for vacancies. Twenty-one vacancies exist, but it was known that the Commissioner would not fill the entire list. '

The captains appointed and their precincts are:

The men were summoned before Commissioner McAdoo and David McClure, R. A. C. Smith and John D. Crimmins, M. A. C. Smith and John D. Crimmins, members of the advisory committee, in the trial room at Police Headquarters at 4:30 o'clock. Commissioner McAdoo without any preliminaries handed each man a certificate of promotion and then had them sworn in by Col. Kipp.

The Commissioner then turned to Chairman McChyng and said:

vited to address the men, and Mr. McClure

The only thing I have to say is of a congratulatory nature. I congratulate you that police promotions are now made on merit alone. I want you to know that your promotions have come solely on merit and without friends. I feel that you ought to be grateful to Commissioner McAdoo. The whole police force should be grateful to him. For the first time in my long experience as a citizen the report has gone out that the Commissioner knows the men only on their records. This committee has dissected your records and has selected you and recommended you to the Commissioner.

I hope our work has been a success and that some day you will all hold higher rank. If your the day comes that you fail, remember that the Chiramits said:

The gorder with the police force used to be that it was not a unit. Politics and politicians your ed the Department and men soon found by, they could not serve two masters. This give to-day opens a new book in police history, and it has come to pass through Consussioner McAdoo.

gratulating the men and wishing them success for the future.

Commissioner McAdoo rose after Mr. Smith's words and in a voice which trembled with the intensity of his feelings said to the men:

I cannot allow this occasion to pass without expressing my deep sense of gratitude to the members of this committee. They are all gentlemen of very large affairs, whose time is intensely occupied. They have given me a very goodly portion of it, which has been with them a public service for the public good, without recompense and with the danger of criticism. I believe they are the pioneers in a great movement for the betterment and efficiency of the police force, for I do not believe that the old days will ever return.

Here is a spectacle to-day that never has been witnessed before since this building was erected, the like of which was never seen in New York before. A few years ago, if any one had the temerity to say that eighteen captains of police could be made in one day in this department, without the suspicion of a dollar, without any ulterior motive, fairly, squarely, in the open light of day, on meritalone, he would not have been believed.

But I believe that when the people of New York understand this, when they see that promotions can be made as these are made to-day, that they will not permit any organization or any man or men to go back to the old and vicious system that prevailed here before.

Now, gentlemen, captains of police of New York, you are the living testimonies.

Men the will is contested. These sections read as follows:

All the rest, residue and remainder of my row hauther Rosalle Tousey, wife of Frank Tousey, to be used and enjoyed by her during the term of her natural life and from and immediately after her decease I give, direct and bequeath the same to my sister, Rebecca Nusbaum, to her three sons, familiary called Eddie, Carl and Jerus and they to take per capita and not per stirpes, share and share alike as tenants in common and not joint tenants.

I make, constitute and appoint my friend I of vicious system that prevaled here before.

Now, gentlemen, captains of police of New York, you are the living testimonies of my best judgment from the list furnished me by the Civil Service Commission, and in that respect you are the custodians of my honor, long after I have departed from this building and from life itself. If ever you are tempted to do wrong by any one, under any circumstances, remember that one man who was the Police Commissioner of New York in 1995 had absolute confidence and placed implicit trust in your integrity and your moral courage.

placed implicit trust in your integrity and your moral courage.

I want you to remain after me as captains of the police force of New York, as living monuments and examples that preferment and promotion in this department can be made as free and as fair as in the army and navy of the United States; and I want you to go from here feeling under the very deepest obligation to these eminent and respectable and influential citizens who stand to-day and give their testimony to the press and public that these promotions were made without fear, without bias, without influence, unbought and unsought by you captains.

After the Commissioner had finished, the men were photographed and dismissed.

The Republican managers were in high feather yesterday over the result of a canvass of 200 of the 850 election districts. The figures, according to Messrs. CORONER HERE MAY ORDER IT -DEED OF GIFT FILED

By Which Mrs. Todd Gave Her Hotel to Her Daughter-Lawyer Lockwood Says He Has a Deed of Trust Covering It-Will Filed Yesterday Makes Him Executor.

It is probable that Coroner Scholer will soon take a hand in the investigation of the death of Mrs. Margaretta Todd, the rich New York woman who was found dying beside the Reading Railroad tracks in Phil-J. L. Zimmerman, Butler street station adelphia on last Friday night with both legs cut off. Coroner Scholer said yesterday that he would begin an investigation here if he received a request from Coroner Dugan of Philadelphia to do so. What he can do Francis B. Crowley, Tottenville, Staten is to order an autopsy. The body is in a receiving vault at Woodlawn and Coroner's George C. Liebers, Gates avenue station | Physician O'Hanlon will probably be called upon to make the autopsy.

Lawyer Ingersoll Lockwood has declared that he has a deed executed in 1904 by which he holds all Mrs. Todd's real estate for the benefit of Mrs. Frank Tousey, Mrs. Todd's John F. Tappan, West 100th street station | daughter, He says that by this deed the management of the property falls upon him and that although the income derived from it is to go to Mrs. Tousey, yet, in return for his fifteen years of services to Mrs. Todd. he is to receive the fees for looking after the property. At his death, he declared, Mrs. Tousey is to come into complete ownership of the property. Lawyer George Gordon Hastings, Mrs. Tousev's attorney, said yesterday that such a deed would have to be very carefully drawn to resist legal attacks upon it.

Records at the Register's Office show that a deed of gift was filed yesterday by which Mrs. Todd conveyed to her daughter, Mrs, Tousey, the Von Hoffman apartment house in which she lived at 29 West Twentysixth street. There is a mortgage of $72, 500 on the property.

As attorney for Mrs. Tousey, Mr. Hastings called upon Lockwood on Monday for copies of all leases and legal parers, which he says he has that were executed by Mrs. Todd. He hadn't received them late yesterday afternoon.nor did he know anything about them except what Lockwood told him. The will of Mrs. Todd. which was executed on January 23, 1902, was filed vesterday in the Surrogates' office. This will was drawn up by Ingersoll Lockwood, the lawyer wno advised Mrs. Todd for many years, until last July when she put him out of the von Hoffman, Lockwood filed the will. Mr. Hastings has not employed any detectives to investigate Mrs. Todd's death, although he thinks that it was very suspicious. He said he was depending upon the Philadelphia authorities to determine how the woman was killed. He said yesterday that she had absolutely no reason to commit suicide and that if she had intended doing such a thing she would not have spent hours discussing with him a new will which had not been drawn up in form for her signature before her death.

The cablegram telling Mrs. Tousey of her mother's death evidently had not reached her yesterday. Mr. Hastings received a message from her from Berlin regarding private business and no mention was made of Mrs. Todd's death or Mrs. Tousey's plans for returning.

TAMMANY TO PARADE TO-NIGHT. Braves Will March by the Wigwam, Where

Cockran and the Mayor Will Speak. One of the biggest Tammany demonstrations seen in many campaigns will take place to-night, when 20,000 braves will march ast the wigwam and be reviewed by Mayor past the wigwam and be reviewed by Mayor McClellan. The parade will form at the Bowery and Rivington street and will start et 8 o'clock. The line of march will be through Seventh street to Second avenue and then through Fourteenth street past Tammany Hall to University Place, where the paraders will be dismissed. A meeting is to be held in Tammany Hall, at which the chief speaker will be W. Bourke Cockran. A brief address will be made by Mayor McClellan.

Sullivans Plan a Sunday Night Meeting. The Sullivans will wind up the Tammany campaign next Sunday night with a mass meeting in Miner's Bowery Theatre. Bets, even at these heavy odds went a begging, and at Democratic headquarters it was privately conceded that there was little or no chance for the county ticket.

Hattle III Sullivan will preside, and the principal speech of the night will be delivered by Big Tim. Among the other speakers will be Congressman Sulzer, Corporation Counsel Delany. Recounts to Waken Up The Bronx. New York University freshmen were thankful last night for warm weather. So were several hundred residents of the upper part of The Bronx, who turned out to see the annual ceremony of ducking the freshmen in the old fountain on Sedgewick avenue, just below the Hall of Fame.

Roped in by the sophomores, the 1909 men gathered in front of Gould Hall, fantastically decked out in nightgowns and pajamas. Several took sophomore instructions too literally and appeared in the scantiest of costumes. The night wasn't warm enough for that, however, and the Francis G. Howis of joy greeted the appearance of several barrels of apples set up by Chancellor MacCracken and Dean Snow, and until these were distributed the pro-ceedings calmed down a bit. Then came the march through the Hall of Fame, and at last freshman after freshman stood on the fountain's edge and drank in wisdom from its waters after answering a few pertinent questions as to his birth a few pertinent questions as to his birth, ancestry, politics, musical ability and other things which varied with each victim. LAWYER WOULDN'T MOVE ON. Was in Crowd With Wife Watching Political Pictures-Cops Arrested Him.

The Republican Club of the Nineteenth Assembly district entertained a crowd with stereopticon views in front of its clubhouse, at Sixty-sixth street and Broadway, last night. Among those who stopped to wat h the views was A. Belos Kneeland, a lawyer at 111 Broadway and who lives at 310 West Eighty-third street. His wife was with him.

Mr. Kneeland offended a cop by refusing to "move on." Then Roundsman Jones ordered the lawyer to move. He refused and was taken to the West Sixty-eighth street station a prisoner. Mrs. Kneeland offered the house they live in as bail and the lawyer was spared the indignity of being locked in a cell. Assembly district entertained a crowd

Onetime M. O. Candidate for Alderman Turns to McClellan.

Edgar R. Preyer, the first organizer of a Hearst club in the Twenty-third Assembly district, has withdrawn his support from Hearst. in a letter to Mr. Hearst he says:

On October 17 the Municipal Ownership

League of the Twenty-third Assembly district held a public convention, for which 5,000 trict held a public convention, for which 5,000 I invitations were issued. At this convention I was unanimously nominated for Alderman of the Twenty-fourth Aldermanic district, and my petitions were regularly and duly delivered to the Board of Elections, when I discovered that the Republican candidate had filed his petition for the same emblem. Ther efore a contest for subremacy was on hand, and much to my surprise the Municipal Ownership League admitted to the board that they desired the Republican candidates for Assembly and Aldermen on their ticket.

My counsel at the hearing offered to withdraw my petition if the nominee on the other side would say that he would support Hearst, which he declined to do. Under these circumstances your committee supporting such a nominee proves from my point of view that there is an agreement between you and the Republican party. If this is true why not be honest with your supporters and tell them so instead of posing as a leader independent of both parties?

Why lead your followers in such a mire as will besmirch their characters and standing in the community? I have been a Demorat all my life, but when you try to lead me into such a trap as to ask me to support Republicans in the disguise of Municipal Ownership League nominees I certainly must revolt.

I am glad to have found the chicanery invitations were issued. At this convention

CHINESE QUICKLY APOLOGIZE. Attack on Admiral Train at Nankin a Closed Incident.

Washington, Oct. 31.-Advices were received by both the State and Navy Departments to-day confirming the report that Rear Admiral Charles J. Train, commanding the American naval force on the Asiatic station, and his son, Lieut. Charles R. Train, commanding the gunboat Quiros, had been attacked by a mob near Nankin, China; TALKS OF HEARST-ODELL DEAL. | but it was made known also to both departments that such prompt measures of redress had been taken by the Chinese authorities that the incident may be regarded as amicably and satisfactorily closed. The State Department received this account of the affair by telegraph from Consul-General Rogers at Shanghai:

"Attack on Admiral Train and his son occurred October 24. Admiral and son and party were out shooting. A Chinese woman was accidently wounded by the son, but the injury was very slight. The son was detained by the mob and a rescuing party layled from the Ouiros. In the state of the son was detained by the mob and a rescuing party layled from the Ouiros.
